E. Germans in New Attack On an Adviser of Adenauer

By the Associated Press
BERLIN, July 28.—East Germany launched a new attack today on Hans Globke, a close adviser of West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

Original documents allegedly from Nazi files were produced at a news conference to support the Communist contention that Mr. Globke was deeply involved as a high official with the Nazi persecution and slaughter of Jews.

Prof. Albert Norden, member of the Politburo, produced the documents one by one and commented that they proved Mr. Globke's "criminal past."

For the last ten years Mr. Globke has been State Secretary in Dr. Adenauer's Chancellery in Bonn and as such a close confidant of the Chancellor.

He has been a constant target of Communist attacks. This latest onslaught appeared to have been elaborately prepared and documented.

Prof. Norden said the pile of documents was recently found "in our archives." He claimed they proved Prof. Globke had prepared the Nazi laws that enabled Adolf Eichmann, the alleged mass murderer of the Jews, to do his work.

The documents allegedly proving collaboration between Mr. Globke and Eichmann will be sent to Israeli authorities who are prepaing to put Eichmann on trial, Prof. Norden said.

Prof. Norden described Mr. Globke as "the second most powerful man in the Adenauer regime," and added: "Globke, today the right hand of Adenauer, was the right hand of Himmler in 1944."

He produced what he said was an original letter from Nazi Interior Minister Karl Frick, who was hanged in Nuremberg, warmly lauding Mr. Globke for his work on the laws which declared Jews to be subhuman and condemned them to the gas chambers.

Prof. Norden also read apparent extracts from Mr. Globke's personal file, recording his promotions in the Interior Ministry and Nazi decorations he was awarded.

He said Prof. Globke had initiated a "white-washing campaign" to make it appear he had tried to weaken the effect of the anti-Semitic Nuremberg laws.

Vorwürfe Nordens gegen Staatssekretär Globke

Von unserem Korrespondenten
Zie. Berlin, 28. Juli

Vorwürfe gegen Staatssekretär Globke vom Bundeskanzleramt, erhob das Mitglied des SED-Politbüros Norden am Donnerstag vor der Presse in Ostberlin. Er behauptete, Globke sei nicht nur Kommentator, sondern auch Verfasser der nationalsozialistischen Rassenengesetze gewesen.

Norden versuchte, seine Behauptung mit Dokumenten zu belegen, die in Archiven der Sowjetzone gefunden worden seien. Dazu gehört auch die Personalakte Globkes aus der Zeit von 1934 bis 1944.

Aus der Tätigkeit Globkes im Reichsinnenministerium während des Krieges, besonders in der Eigenschaft als Generalsekretär für die Reichsverwaltung, schloß Norden, der Staatssekretär sei zusammen mit Eichmann maßgeblich an der Vernichtung der Juden, entsprechend dem Programm der „Endlösung“, beteiligt gewesen.
